INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

(1) The Cherokee Nation v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23199; (2) The Eastern and Emigrant Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23212; and (3) The Eastern Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23214.

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

APP. #26761.

August 29, 1907.

W. W. Dinsdale,

Alpharetta,

Georgia.

Sir:-

Your letter of August 27, 1907, relative to the application filed by Mary C. Dinsdale, now deceased, is at hand.

You are advised that it will not be necessary for you to file any further application in behalf of her children, as she has included them in her original application.

The applications for participation in this fund have not been taken up for final consideration, and we cannot state at the present time whether or not she is entitled to share in this fund.

As there are already over 36,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with this application you will be notified.

Very respectfully,

MLC.

Special Commissioner.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to your favor of the 20th inst., and in answer to the inquiries therein contained, I beg to say, that I do not know why the names of my ancestors are not on the Cherokee rolls of 1835 and 1851. I presume it was an oversight on the part of someone.

As to whether or not I claim descent through one or both of my parents, I will say, that I claim through both of them. My mother's Indian name was Flora Elye, and her English name was Flora Carpenter. My Father's Indian name was Alf. Blye, and his English name was Alf. Carpenter. They were both affiliated with the Cherokee Tribe of Indians, residing in Yadkin County, North Carolina. My Mother was stolen from a tribe in Burke county, and carried by the Cherokee Indians to Yadkin county, this State, sometime during the 40's. She was held there as a slave by the Donohue

William D. Owens, being first duly sworn, deposes
and says:

My name is William D. Owens and I reside at Thermal City, N. C. I was born in McDowell Co., N. C. in 1860. I claim relationship to the Cherokee Indians through both my father and mother. My father's name was Butler Owens, and he was a quarter Cherokee Indian. My mother's name was Judy Owens, and she was a half Cherokee Indian. My father and mother were first cousins. My mother, I meant to say, was a quarter Cherokee Indian. My father's mother's maiden name was Easter Jackson and she was a half blood Cherokee Indian. My grandmother on my mother's side was named Tempie Owens and she was a half blood Cherokee Indian. My people were never owned by white people, they were always free. My father had his own farm and worked it. My father had one brother, namely, Henry Owens, and I was told that he went away with the Indians. I have often heard my grandmother, Tempie Owens, talk about the Indians, and she always told me that her mother was a full blood Indian. She told me about the Indians being taken away from this part of the country, but never told me why she did not go. My father and mother were both born in McDowell County, N. C. My grandfather and grandmother were born in Burke Co., N. C. My people were never enrolled as Indians that I know of. I know of no money ever having been received by my people. They were always recognized as Cherokee Indians. My grandmother's maiden name, on my mother's side, was Tempie Powell, and she was a half blood Cherokee Indian. My great-grandfather was named Jim Jackson, and he was about three-quarters or full-blooded Cherokee Indian. All the Powells, Jacksons and Owens remained in this part of the country, and these families were always free and recognized as part Cherokee Indians.

I claim relationship to the Cherokee Indians through my mother, America Shaw, who was a quarter Indian. She was born in Lamar County, Ala. My father is Peter M. Shaw. He was born in Fayette Co., Ala., in about 1836. My father was a slave and belonged to a white family by the name of Shaw. My mother was never a slave but her father was and he was owned by white people in Alabama. I have often heard my parents speak of Indians passing through but never heard what tribe they were.

Sarah Jane Sutton, being first duly sworn, deposes
and says:

I am fifty-nine years of age and was born in Famin Co., Ga.; my father was Nathan Paris, who was born in North Carolina, I think just over the line from Famin Co.; he died about fifteen years ago and he was then about seventy-five years of age; his mother was a Nancy. My mother was Elizabeth or Betsy Frammel before marriage; she died when I was about fourteen or fifteen years of age; she died in Georgia; she was born in North Carolina, I think and her father was a Cherokee Indian named Jimmie Frammel; his wife was Annie Turner before marriage; I don't know whether she had Indian blood but think she had as her brother Balus Turner was very dark; my father had a brother named Bob and one named Sylvester and one named Nathaniel and a half-brother Green Paris; my mother also had brothers named Edward, Daniel and Joseph. Joseph was a cripple and drew Indian money when I was about twelve years old. Balus Turner was my grand-mother's brother. I claim Indian blood from both my father and my mother.

William F. Rasmus, being first duly sworn, deposes
and says:

I am seventy years of age and am an attorney-at-law and was born in Warren Co., Missouri about 1894: Sarah Jane Sutton came to Tahlequah to prove Cherokee citizenship. I do not know anything about her family history or her connection with the Cherokee tribe further than what she told me, but according to the proof then presented it appeared to me to be pretty well established that she was descended from Nathan Paris; I did not know Nathan Paris. Mrs. Sutton was not allotted to the best of my recollection. That is substantially all I know of the case.

Dear Sir:

You have until October thirtieth to file exceptions to the action of the Special Commissioner rejecting your claim to share in the Eastern Cherokee fund. If you have not already employed an attorney, I shall be pleased to appear for you, if you will execute the enclosed power of attorney and fee agreement, and return to me with six cents in postage.

Read carefully the circular letter on which this notice is printed, which is a copy of the letter sent by me to clients whom I already represent.

On the statement made by the Special Commissioner, or the evidence taken by him, I am impressed that your case can be made good; and I believe the court will, on a proper showing, extend the time beyond October thirtieth in which proof in support of exceptions may be filed, though the exceptions themselves must be filed within the time.

On the receipt of the power of attorney, I will file exceptions, and advise you promptly what testimony is necessary.

Yours very truly,

Spam, Okla, May 11, 1908.
Hon. Guion Miller,
Special agt.

Sir: -

In reply to notice of Feb 29, 1908 - in appln No. 17406.

my grand parents, Andrew J. & Sarah J. Martin I am unable to state why they were never enrolled - my mother was born in Johnson Co. Ark. and -

I appear as enrolled with the Cherokees by the Dawes Commission, and my roll # appears 16880, on my land allotment cert. of date May 11, 1915 -

None of my ancestors were old settled Cherokees that I know of -

My reason for thinking I am entitled to share in this fund, is.
the fact that my mothers father was A. J. Martin, his father too was also A. J. Martin Sr. & his father was Samuel Martin, a Cherokee Indian, & of Tennessee in the old
Cherokee Nation & enrolled in 1833.
Hence, they could not have been old settlers - my father was white, hence no interest as to being descendent of Whites - in the emigrant fund -

Very respectfully,
Andrew J. Martin

Sir:-

In your application to share in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, you have included the names of three children - William, Charley and Annie Cochran. We find you and your wife, Cynthia, and William, also one child named Too-late Cochran, enrolled by the Dawes Commission, Numbers 30642 to 30645 inclusive. However, we do not find the names of either Charley or Annie or any by the name of Polly Cochran, a child included in your wife's application.

We note that your wife has also filed a supplemental and included in hers, Robert Spade, Will, Polly and Annie Cochran. If Polly, Annie and Charley have been enrolled by the Dawes Commission, will you furnish us with their enrollment numbers? Are Charley and Too-late one and the same person? Is Robert Spade your wife's child? If not, who are his parents? Are Polly, Annie, Charlie and Too-late all living at the present time? If any of them are dead, give the dates of their death.

Please reply promptly, answering each and every one of the questions in full, and refer to F.R.R. #26848 with #3088.

Name Wm. J. Whitmore and 2 children. Residence: Potts Mt., Ga.

Reasons:

Applicant's ancestors were not enrolled, were not parties to Treaties of 1835-6 and 1846; claimed that family's name was once Whitmire, but the Whitmire family claim through an entirely different ancestry; offers no definite evidence to prove that ancestors were ever recognized members of the Cherokee tribe. Evidence is not sufficient to establish genuine connection with Cherokee tribe.

NOTE: In regard to the Whitmire family, this family has been admitted but applicant does not show genuine connection with this family.

Miso.

Appl. #18942 - 26862

William J. Whitmore being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is William J. Whitmore. I was born in 1847 in Dawson Co. I claim Cherokee Indian blood through my father and his father and his grandmother. My father died in 1865 and was about 76 years old when he died. He was born in N. C. Not far from Buncombe Co. My grandfather's name was Tobe or Toby Whitmore. My father ~~and his father~~ said that his grandmother was a quarteroon. My father went out of the country with the Indians when they went. That was before I was born. He in N. C. my father and grandfather lived with the Indians. My father, my grandfather and I have never gotten any money or land from the Govt. on account of our Indian blood. In 1882 I was living in Dawson Co. My great grandmother's name was Deec or Deec before she married a Whitmore. I don't know whether I get any Indian blood on my mother's side or not. It is said there was some on that side. I have heard my father speak of the Treaty of 1835, but I don't remember anything he said. I heard my father say he went with the Indians when they were taken away from here. I think my grandfather went with them too. I heard my father say my grandfather went on with the Indians and did not come back again.

My father said the family was called Whitmire in N. C. My father had a brother named Spence, and one named Jim. All his family went West with the Indians.

Madam:-

Relative to your application for participation in the Western Cherokee Fund, kindly state why the names of your parents and other ancestors through whom you claim your Cherokee blood and who were living in 1835 and 1851, do not appear on the Cherokee rolls of those dates.

If you claim any Cherokee descent through your mother, give the names of her parents, also her brothers and sisters.

Were you or any of your ancestors ever held as a slave? If so, state whether you or they were owned by white people or Indians.

Did your father or any of your other Cherokee ancestors ever live with any Indian tribe? If so, give the name of the same and state where they resided.

Give all the information you can tending to establish your right to participate in this fund.

I know Mrs. Mary Ann Porter; have known her ever since she was a child. I know her father. He was a half Cherokee Indian. I do not know if he ever received any Indian money from the government. He lived with the Indians up in North Carolina. He was 104 years of age when he died. He was born in North Carolina.
Do not know how old he was when he went to Swain.
He could speak the Indian language. He hunted and farmed. He killed an Indian in N.C. He fell out with the Indians because they rocked his house. He was tried for killing the Indian about 1840. He left there then and came here. Never heard him say anything about getting any Indian money. He lived in this county 15 years ago. I have lived here about 59 years. I never heard of Lester, Swetland or Chapman. I could not say if a man was a Cherokee or Choctaw by appearances. I did not know Cornett's mother and father. He killed an Indian by the name of Ahlecho.

My dear Sir,

Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Yours faithfully,

App. No. 26887

April 20, 1908.

Duvall Green,
Willard, N. Mex.

Sir:-

In reference to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, I beg to advise you that I am unable to locate any of the parties named in your application, on the Cherokee rolls of 1835 and 1851. If you claim any of them have ever been enrolled, kindly give us the names under which they were enrolled.

Do you claim any Cherokee descent whatever through your father? If so, set out the source of the same. Kindly give us the names of your mother's brothers and sisters.

Did any of your ancestors ever live with any Indian tribe? If so, state when and where and give the name of such tribe.

Did any of your ancestors ever participate in any Old Settler payment? If so, state when and where.

Were any of your ancestors ever held as slaves? If so, state whether they were owned by white people or Indians.

An early reply will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

FDR/LJC

Appl. 26887.

November 11, 1908.

Mr. J. H. Davis,
Attorney at Law,
Millard, New Mexico.

Sir:

In the matter of the applications of Duwall and J. H. Green, for participation in the land awarded to the Eastern Cherokees, who were admitted to this office on June 24, 1907, you are advised that the information contained in said applications is not sufficient to connect these applicants with the Eastern Cherokees. In your letter of transmittal you stated that these applicants claimed their Cherokee blood through their father, J. H. Green. You have failed to give the names of the ancestors of J. H. Green or these applicants. You are requested, therefore, to answer the following questions:

Through what ancestor does J. H. Green claim his Cherokee blood, his father or his mother?

What is the Cherokee blood of J. H. Green back to the first ancestor, and to give both the English and Cherokee names of all parents and grandparents.

Where was J. H. Green and his parents living in 1861? Where J. H. Green and the ancestors through whom he claims his Cherokee blood were enrolled with the Eastern Cherokees, and if so, in what district or county and State were they enrolled.

(2. . . . -- 5)

Did J. B. Green or any of his associates ever participate in any of the latter payments? If so, state when and where.

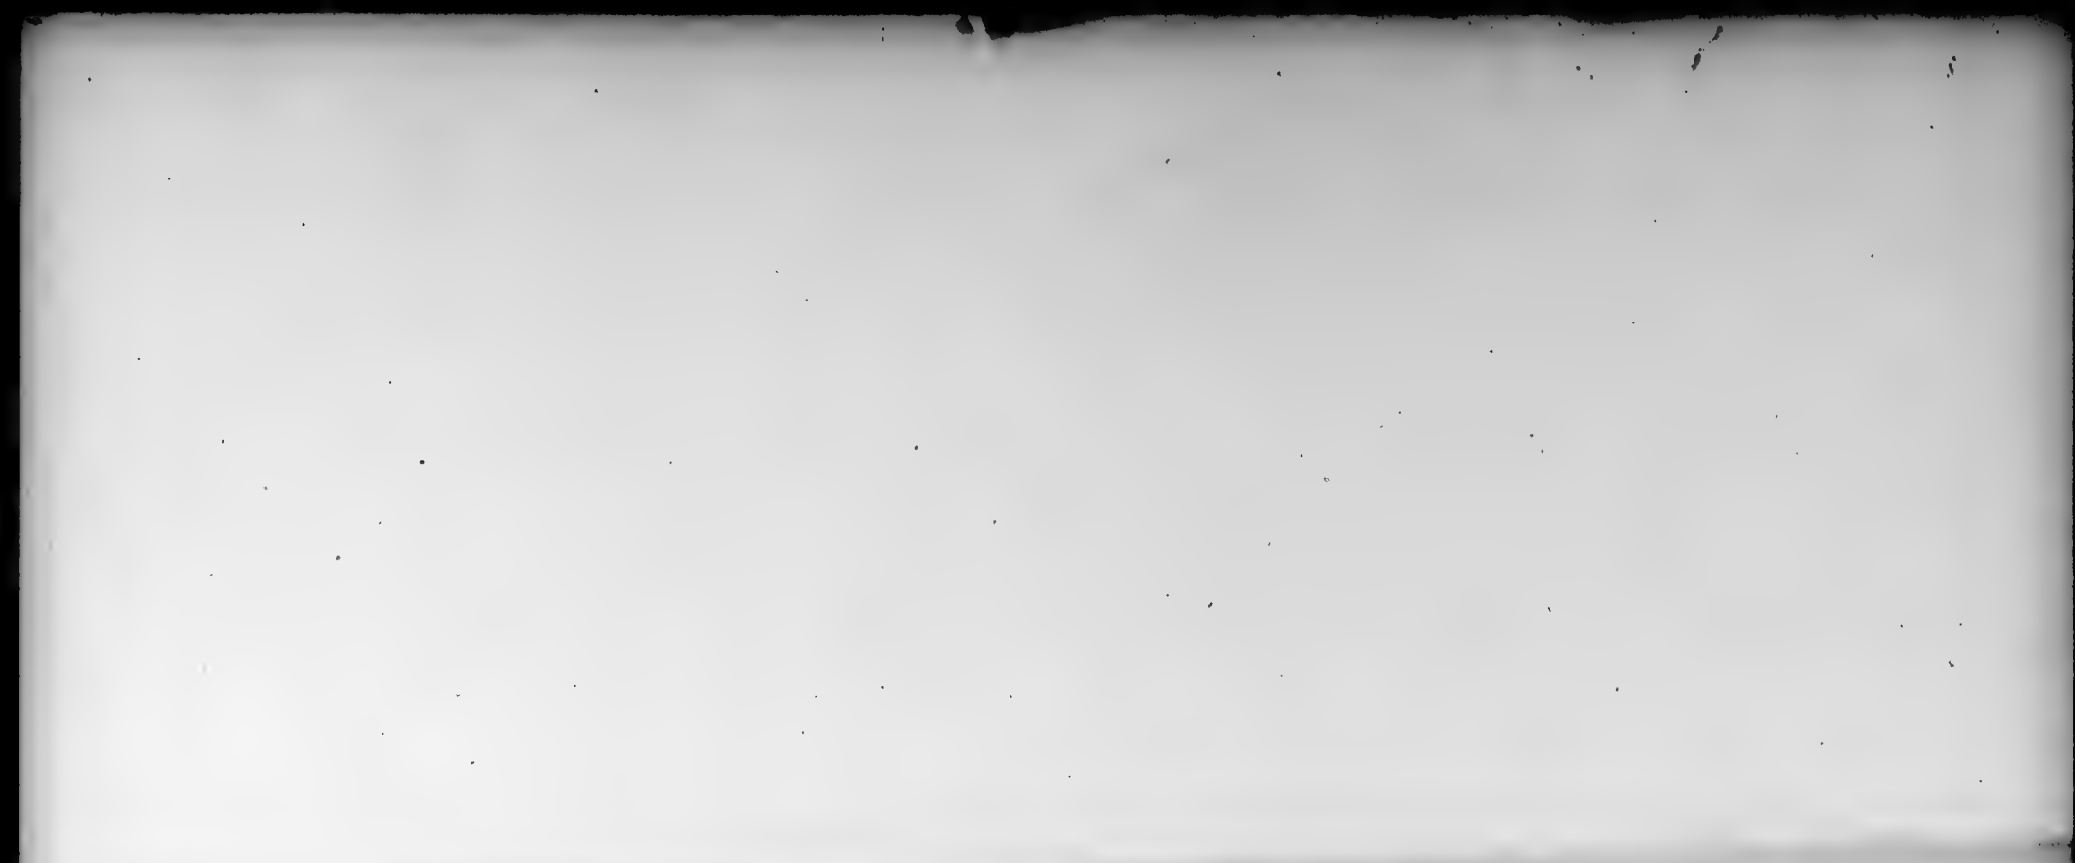

Was the county and state in which the headquarters of J. B. Green were kept and state where they were living in 1935 and 1951.

As the above information is necessary in the adjudication of these claims you are requested to reply to this communication immediately. In case no response is made to this communication, these claims will be rejected for want of proof connecting the applicants with the Eastern Shovel Co. See also letter to J. B. Green, 1/26/37.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

John C. Lee,
Troy, Tenn.

Sir:-

Relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, kindly state why your name does not appear on the Cherokee roll of 1851 and why those of your ancestors through whom you claim your Cherokee descent and who were living in 1835 and 1851, do not appear on the Cherokee rolls of those dates.

Kindly trace the source of your Cherokee descent separately through each of your ancestors, giving the full Indian and English names of each ancestor.

When did John Gunter die? If living in 1835, where did he reside at that time? Give the county and state, and if on any river, give the name of that.

Were you or any of your ancestors ever sold as a slave? If so, state whether you or they were owned by white people or Indians.

Kindly give us a full history of your Cherokee ancestry.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.
